WHEN	WHAT	WHERE
July 15th 6:00 PM	The GREAT LOONY HEADS HOMETOWN TOUR will open with an intimate gathering among friends in the small room where a famous German composer gave his first public concert in England.
July 16th 4:30 PM	School was always a nightmare for the members of the band. "Music was how we escaped" says lead guitar Pete. Their second appearance will take place where "children like us" used to be locked up.
July 18th 6:00 PM	In honour of the Moody Blues, the icon band from the sixties, the Loony Heads will play the famous "House of four doors". A concert outdoors in a closed place with three doors which close every night at ten.
July 20th 7:00 PM	The scandal caused by the Loony Heads' infamous rock version of «God save the Queen» is still in everybody's mind. To make amend the quartet will perform in a public house where a king was saved.
July 21st Starts at 11:00 AM till nightfall	The Loony Heads invite you to celebrate the summer solstice in front of the oldest medieval clock in the world. A free concert, on the grass (don't bring your own), and under the sunshine (hopefully).
July 23rd 11:00 AM	The Loony Heads had the reputation of being "over-theatrical" in their everyday life as well as on stage. To be true to their image they will play music in a venue where actors used to perform.
July 24th 10:00 PM	To commemorate the day when their career took off and they left for London, the Loonies will perform at the right time, in the right place.
July 25th 6:30 PM	A very special session at a very special place where the band will perform between a wood giant and a crazy horse for a memorable festive re-union.
July 27th 5:00 PM	Salisbury was often hard on the restless Loony Heads. In remembrance of the nights spent at the police station the band will have a private gig at the tiniest jail in town in the presence of the police commissioner and the city officials.
July 30th Starts at 12:00 AM till 6:00 PM	The GREAT LOONY HEADS HOMETOWN TOUR will close with a farewell concert with local and national guest stars. An entire street will be dedicated to the event. If you live there, make sure you move your car before 8:00 and enjoy the music. This street is for ever, ever, ever, ever...
