

LA VILLE D'HIVER

THE QUESTIONS

YOUR ANSWERS

Your
brownie
points

Since we are in a labyrinth, we will start with a little magic. Find where Puss in Boots used to live. Give the name of his house. What was this villa used as ?	Name the villa :  What was it ?
The labyrinth is protected from draughts and cold weather by its layout. A famous man also defended it against an invader. Who was he ? Who was the invader ?	Name the man :  Who was the invader ?
Don't worry about magic and invaders. We, English people, are perfectly safe here. In case of problem find a villa which is at the corner of two streets related to England or Englishmen.	Name the first street :  Name the second street :  Name the villa :
Find a villa which was used as the town's secondary school. The man who had it built wasn't French and all the furniture came from abroad. Where is it ?	Name the villa :  Find the nationality of the owner :
Speaking of furniture, find a villa which had its furniture was and its interior vandalised. What is the name of this villa ? When was it built ? Who had it built ? Who was he ?	The name : The date :  The owner : Who was he ?
Hotels often become famous because of their guests. The hotel owners like taking pictures of their visitors on the front steps. Find a villa which is so big that it was turned into a hotel. Three visitors climbed its front steps in 1921. Who were they ?	The name the hotel :  Who were the visitors :  Why did they climb the front steps ?
Find a villa where a famous composer used to stay. Its name is both a flower and a young lady. Note down the name of the street where it is and find another villa with the same name as the street. Do a bit of research about these names. Why are they related ?	Name the flower and the lady :  Name the street and the second villa :  What is the connection ?
Find a villa which was once named after a very famous English writer. It was then named after a Spanish painter and is now named after a German Opera.	The English writer :  The Spanish painter :  The German opera :
This labyrinth is on the "Montagne", in the "Ville d'hiver". What sort of names are those ? You must find out where this "Winter town" is located and what the "Mountain" really is.	Where is Winter Town ?  What is The Mountain ?
Finally. By doing this treasure hunt we are following in the footsteps of a famous Englishman who used to do exactly the same thing more than a hundred years ago. What is his name and who was he ?	Give his name :  Who was he ?	